

Jean John, (J Jay) Pelletier

A Day Hikers Survival Guide

A common sense approach toward the premise of refusing to take the Arizona sun and desert for granted. It can be deadly if you're not careful. J Jay's motto, "Be prepared and be safe".

J Jay will discuss what a camel pack should include especially the most important thing, WATER!

He will train attendees how to keep their bearings and wits about them should they get lost in our beautiful yet treacherous Sonoran Desert, it could save your life, better yet someone else's life!
